Answered supplications(15)

Belief in Allah's Decree(5)

"With every hardship, there is relief"

Today InshaAllah, we will continue to learn in details the Quranic rules related to "hardship"

InshaAllah we will ~~learn~~ learn 4 Quranic rules which are a great source of hope, peace and reliance on Allah.

(B) We will revise all the Quranic rules which we learn about hardship in these 5 classes.

Let's learn the first Quranic rule in our class for today :-

Allah the Almighty said in the Quran in Surat (Ash-Sharh) 94 (5-6).

"Verily with difficulty, there is relief,"

"Verily with difficulty, there is relief."

In this² verse, Allah is teaching us the following

- verses," ① Allah is strongly emphasising the statement by repeating it twice.
② Hardship never comes absolute, without some ease accompanying it. When your burden became became too heavy, be sure that Allah will lift up your heart and relieve the sting of hardship for you.

This verse is a message of relief and comfort to every believer, who will be sure that at time of hardship, he must keep his spirit up as he is Sure that there is ease around. As this is a Promise from Allah, the One who controls our affairs. May be we don't know that ease, but it is around as Allah Promised. So let's try to find "ease" with and also hardship :

- ① It is that during hardship, the believer will turn to Allah, calling on Him with sincerity, this is a cause of great relief for the spirit. i.e Duaa during hardship is a cause for relief, also the feeling of being more closer to Allah is a great source of lifting up the heart 3

2) Patience which is the acceptance of Allah's decree with no complaining is a source of great relief to the believer who knows that he will be rewarded in full so long he is patient and accepting and content with Allah's decree

It is patience (the half of the belief) which supports the spirit and causes its relief at hardship (we will learn all about patience inshaAllah, after the month of Ramadhan.

The Second Quranic rule to learn today is surat At-Talaq 65(7)

"Allah puts no burden on any person beyond what he has given him, Allah will grant after hardship, ease.

I am sure that each and everyone of us is feeling that life is one difficulty after another. One task after another.

But according to the above Quranic rule we must believe that :

"Tough times only mean that the times of ease are near"

The fact is that ① nothing remains the same

② nothing remains forever

∴ After hardship, there is ease

As Allah said in the Quran

"The moving light after the stillness of darkness"

Let's always remember the story of Prophet

Ayoub , the Patient , who lost his wealth, health and family but out of Allah's mercy for the strong belief of Prophet Ayoub it was that Allah cured him completely and replaced him with family members.

So Always , remember your story and Compare your hardship with the great one of prophet Ayoub so that you become sure that InshaAllah ease is very close to You .

Also be sure that : "nothing remains the same " , Every thing is in a flux, this means people in health will soon face illness, people in illness will soon have relief. Most changes in life are following the Quranic rule in Surat Al-Imrān(3) V. (140)

"And so are the days (good and not good), that we give to men by turns, that Allah may test the believers"

A real story "Allah will grant relief after hardship ease"

Goal: always be sure, that hardship goes ease so seek relief and ease at time of hardship

My friend e.g Huda was always believing that her husband is not a kind husband.

He is always looking for mistakes, always not appreciating her efforts to make her satisfied regarding the house and children.

This made her very close to her mother as she was the source of affection and mercy in her life. She was the real companion for her.

But her mother was an old woman, gradually became very weak, so diagnosed as having cancer lung. The lovely mother died in 6 months. This was a real catastrophe for Huda, whom wees admitted to the hospital for 3 days after her mother death , as she had nervous breakdown.

Returning back to normal life , Huda failed to adjust living without the warmth , Love and affection of the sincere companion , her mother . Gradually Huda decided to turn with all her feelings to Allah , The Most Merciful , Who never dies . Huda was a routine muslim i.e praying and fasting but always lacking the depth of sincerity in her relation with Allah . After her mothers death , it was only Allah Whom Huda trusted to detest all her connection to , but with all the sincerity , trust and the true belief .

It was the Quran and its tafseer that she decided to Learn , Looking for the truth, with the intention to follow.

Her husband noticed that she is improving gradually, becoming more acceptable to his attitude, even more closer to him and the children. Huda decided to continue on learning the rules of the Quran, promising the Lord, The One, The Eternal that she will become his obedient servant as He is now the source of the light, hope, power and peace for her spirit.

addition of the and

It was the night prayers, the fasting of

Also

3 days per month, the manners of the Prophet

(S.A.W) and the responsibilities of the mother and wife. These were ^{The} ~~her~~ ^{the} ideals which Huda decided to have for her life.

It was the death of her mother (hardship) that is followed by the real ease of her life - (true belief in Allah)

The 3rd Quranic Rule is mentioned in Surah(6)-V.

and in Surah Yunus(10) V. 107'

" . And if Allah touches you with harm, none can remove it but He and if He touches you with good , then He is able to do all things".

In both verses it is only Allah's Will a that can save you from any hardship

As Allah's Will is the Only Power in this life.

These 2 verses of the Quran, directs the spirit of the believer to his Lord, it turns the heart to Allah, the source of all the mercy on the earth.

We must know that depression" i.e the feeling of sadness without being able to improve the cause of the gloominess in life", is happens because of a feeling of helplessness. A Feeling that "you are not in control"

"So believing that only Allah is in control of all the affairs and up to this only is to relieve you from any harm.

- 1) Turn to the One Who is in control.

(2) Tell Him that you know that: He is in Control

③ Cry to him , Pray to him and talk to Him saying "All admiration belongs to you, If good comes to me, its from You and If an affliction harms me, its only you, Who can save me I submit to You"

Immediately, you will feel the Mercy of the Most Merciful in the depth of your heart, filling it with the hope peace, tranquility and calmness i.e all the worry, sadness and loneliness will be out of your spirit, All

This happens to you because you turn your heart to the correct direction i.e. to Allah, the Controller of all affairs, the Most Merciful.

So let's us recite from the Quran

Surat Al Baqara(2) V.(156)(157)

56 "Who, when afflicted with calamity, say "truly to Allah we belong and truly to Him we shall return!"

157 "On such people, blessings and mercy are bestowed by their Lord. Such people will be eighthly guided."

No material reward i.e. power or wealth whatsoever is promised here only Allah's Mercy and blessings which are the ample reward for the believers perseverance and how the sacrifices they make. In fact, they are a better reward than any material or worldly gain they aspire to achieve.

So let's learn a final rule in which

Allah commanded Prophet Mohammed (S.A.W) to follow and to believe in as it is a V declaration of the belief in Allah and His Decree

"In Surat AL TWBA (9) - V(51) :

"^{وَهُدًى}

"Say Nothing shall ever happen to us except what Allah has ordained for us. He is

(Guardian)

Our Lord , and in Allah let the believer put their trust."

He is Allah , The Guardian of the believer and He is Allah , The One Who ordains every thing

So How blessed is the believer, who is commanded by the Lord of the heavens and earth, to put his trust in Him.

This verse 9 is a glad tidning and a message of comfort and encouragement to the believers.

In Conclusion:

Let's all appreciate these messages of hope, trust, peace, comfort, acceptance, encouragement, tranquility and support which Allah is sending to his believing servant, the One Who controls life is teaching us these rules in the Quran so that we can realize the Truth of this worldly life, its hardships and trials.

These are the rules of the cure and healing for the spirit of the believers whom Allah The is his Qaderian.

is an answered supplication for every hardship and disaster:

The supplication is "We belong to Allah and to Him shall we return. O Allah!

Reward me for my affliction and give me something better than it in exchange for it

I Pray to my Lord, The One, The Most Merciful, My Guardian to grant us the sincere belief in His Oneness and in His Decree and to bestow on us the acceptance and thankfulness and the patience for all His Decree.
