

19 April 2010

Message of hope (14)

Title (Mental Peace) - What is the great success?
Topic (The greatest blessing in life : Belief in Allah's Oneness)

Today

InshaAllah, we will continue to know and to learn about the benefits of the belief in Allah's Oneness so that we can be sure that in reality; it is the greatest blessing in life.

Benefits of the belief in Allah's Oneness

(A) The light of the believer :-

In Surat (2) - V (257)

"Belief in Allah's Oneness" is a light that

i) It radiates from within man's being and illuminate all things, ideas and values around him.

2) It gives the believer a clear vision and a Steady and Confident understanding that enable him to identify and choose-

3) It lights his route to Allah, His Law

and Teachings

- 3) The light of belief puts man in perfect concord with the world around him so he can proceed through life in total harmony and in peace.
- (2) 4) The light of faith and truth is one and unique leading to the one straight path.
- 5) Leaving the light of belief in Allah's Oneness means living life according to Laws of darkness of the false deities.

The word (tagħut) means anything or anyone that transgresses the Laws and limits set by Allah. It refers to systems that disregard the divine religious, moral, social and legal order.

Conclusion: To resist such systems, in all their manifestations and to believe in Allah's Oneness is the only certain path to success and salvation.

And let's learn more about "The light of the believers" from Surah (57) - V(12)

Those are the believers in Allah's Oneness , having Light that is extended in front of them and by their right side.

(3)

- It is the light which leads them out of Darkness into the Light.
- It is the light that illuminate all things ideas and values around them.

These true believers are the ones, whom Allah is giving them the glad tidings of the great success .

What is the great success ?

Logically: The great success is the eternal happiness .

Yes , it is the great success for the true believers i.e the Paradise , the eternal happiness where they dwell therein for ever).

2. From the blessings of belief in Allah's Oneness is that : Allah will certainly defend those who believe.

as Allah mentioned in Surat Al-Hajj 22 - V 38

Meaning

1- We all agree that: people can only endure hardships and trials up to a certain point

2- Allah The Most Merciful knows this, and also Knows the limits of people's ability.

3- Accordingly As Long That Allah is the Guardian and Protector of the believers (Surah 2 - V 257)

so He will defend them i.e Prevent evil from harming them .

You can be sure of this blessing , when as a true believer, you can remember an event in your life when Allah saved you from evil

because of your plots against you. I personally remembered

when someone was planning to steal my money

while I was buying a car , but Allah saved me from this hardship as I succeeded to have my money back. This is the defense of Allah .

Also when I was invited to a meeting where someone was planning to hurt my Feeling but I was not allowed to go to that meeting at the last minute because of severe headache . In reality , it was that : Allah defended me , as He prevented me from going to that meeting to save me from the planned harm .

All the time , in every place and in every second , we can be sure that Allah The Almighty , The Most Powerful will defend us so long we prove our belief in Him , through our good deeds .

3. Guidance is a blessing of the belief in Allah's Oneness

Surat Yuhud (10) - V 9-10

Meaning :

We must realize that; having faith establishes a relationship between the believers and Allah, Who guides them to do what is right.

As a result of this guidance :

1- Their hearts are alive , fully aware of the straight path they have to follow.

2- Their ^{conscience} is alert, directing them always to do what is good and what earns Allah's Pleasure

3- Those are the Ones who are admitted into heavens where all the concerns and worries of this life is over. Its needs are no longer of any value. They enjoy an atmosphere of perfect bliss where

Allah is praised and glorified. This is when man attains perfection

So if you are in reality looking for Allah's Guidance so it is through the belief in His Oneness that you can have the guidance to the Right Path.

X

(Reassurance happiness) Peace and tranquillity are great blessings of the belief in Allah's Oneness.

In Surat Yunus (11) - V(62 - 63).

First : Awliââ. Allah means those who are close to Allah

Q : So the question is how the concept of being close to Allah should be understood?

A : Being close to Allah means being a true believer in Allah's Oneness who obeys the commands of Allah and refrains from all that Allah prohibits. Always looking for pleasing Allah and fearing his punishment.

So, how could those who are close to Allah, feel fear or experience grief - when Allah is with them at every moment and in every action.

These are the ones who watch Allah in all situations, trying always to do what pleases Him

What could cause them to feel fear or grieve, when they have been given glad tidings that apply to both their present life and their future life? This is a true promise that is never changes, ^{and} never fails
for there is no changing of Allah's Word.

Try to realize this glad tidings from Allah:

No fear or grieve. Immediately you will feel peace, reassurance, tranquility and happiness
as these are the opposite of the fear and grieve.

It is the Merit and Reward of Allah to those who belief in Him and live their lives as His slaves.

Also in Surat (6) - V(82), Allah is sending the same message of security and guidance to those who believe in His Oneness and submit themselves purely to Him, associating with Him no partners.

So let's appreciate the peace, security and reassurance which the believers have as Allah defend them and also they have the trust and the promise from Him that they never fear or grieve. With the addition of the light which clarifies to them everything.

← The Angels are the helpers of the believers : Surat(41)
V. 30 → 33
We must realize that : to remain steadfast in pursuing (following) what is entailed by the declaration "Our Lord is Allah"
means to ① keep it alive in one's ^{spirit} conscience ② give proof to it in one's life and to 3) discharge the responsibilities it imposes.

This is serious, important and hard work.

Therefore it deserves the abundant grace, Allah grants them: a friendly relation with the angels (as Allah tells us) who reassure the believers with sweet words "those fear and do not grieve but have the good news of the Paradise".

This friendly relation with the angels and the Paradise are the gifts of Allah to them through His forgiveness and endless mercy.

N.B Angels are the friends and helpers of the believers while the devils are the friends of those who forget the obedience of Allah. A reality which may attract the attention of those who can reflect.

The Love of Allah is the reward of the true belief

In Surat(19) - V(96)

Meaning

This is the Love of Allah to the believers, It is a type of Love that spreads in heaven and spills over to fill the earth . The whole universe is given a full share of it.

Abu Hurayrah, a Companion of the Prophet, reports that Allah's Messenger (S.A.W) said: When Allah Loves a human being, He calls in Gabriel and says to him "Gabriel, I Love this person, so you Love him too. Gabriel then loves that person and calls out to all those living in heavens saying "Allah Loves this person, so you all Love him too." Thus all those who live in heavens start to love that person. He will also be Loved on the earth.

But if Allah dislike someone, He also calls Gabriel and says : Gabriel I dislike this person , so you hate him too. Gabriel then hates that person, and calls out to all those living in heavens saying " Allah, dislikes this person , so you all hate him too . Thus all those who live in heaven start to hate that person . He will also be hated on earth .

~~J. Salim
April 2010
Hawza TA~~ I pray to Allah The Almighty to make us from those true believers of His Oneness, the ones who are the good doers so that we can have all these blessings InshaAllah.

To Continue about more blessings next week inshaAllah .